Dedication

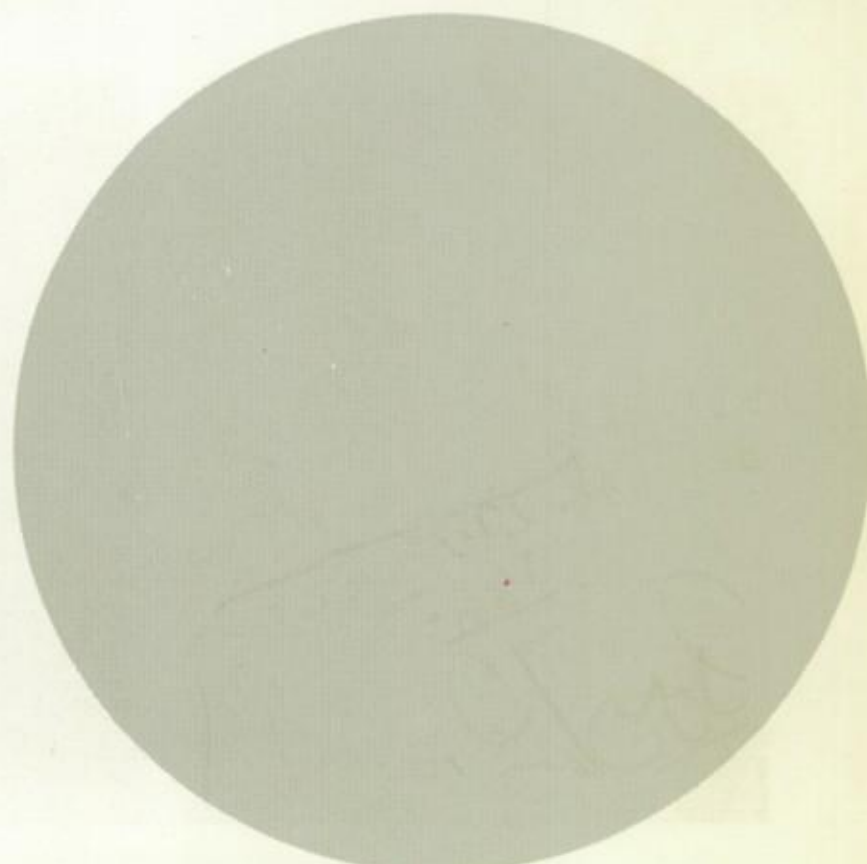

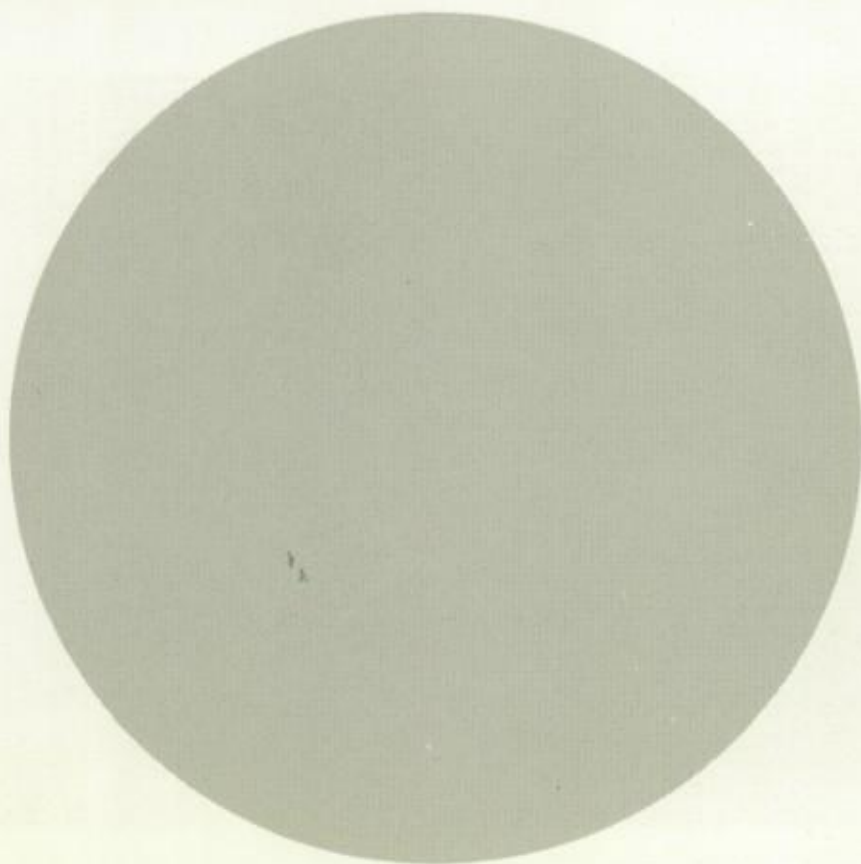

We, the Senior Class of '71, dedicate this issue of the PIRATE to Mr. Wayne Moyer. His sincere interest and devotion has been a great asset during the past four years. His sense of humor and willingness to hlep has made our high school years brighter while a keen sense of understanding has pulled us through many troubled times. All of these qualities combine to create and unsurpassed teacher-student relationship at Petrolia High School.

We hope, in this small way, to have shown our sincere appreciation to a man who has meant so much to each of us.

Will and Testament

We, the P.H.S. Senior Class of 70-71, being of unsound mind and ragged body, hereby declare and make this our last will and testament.

Eulan Armour leaves his rubber duckie to Lee Roy Jones with the instructions of how to bathe him.

Larry Bachman leaves his wornout bull rope and vast knowledge of the rodeo circuit to Jim Blackwell.

Alan Bevering leaves his handbook on "automobile body works" to Gary Bryant.

Cathy Broday leaves her wilted collar of flowers to Marsha Horton and hopes that someday she'll win one. Good luck Marsha

Bill Calobrevés leaves his charm and luck for meeting strange girls in Wichita Falls to Barry Bell.

Bill George leaves his worn out guitar picks to Tim Callaway.

Mike Gile leaves his taste for wild parties to Clyde Austin.

Dewayne Glasgow leaves his ability to make out on the basketball bus and not get caught to Danny Mahler.

Martha Hager leaves her love for the Byers male population to Diana Stephens.

David Harwell leaves his bottle of curl-free and comb to James Lee Harmon.

Howard Isaacs leaves his size 20z boots to Willard "Alcindor" Sullivan.

Shirley Jones leaves her mod mini-skirts to the maxi loving Vera Jo Geise, and Brenda Moore.

Ruth Ann McGhee leaves her Bruised knees to Bonnie Fuhrman.

Marilyn Morgan leaves her studious abilities to Larry Brumley.

Jack Patterson leaves his unsettled lawsuit to Clifford Rivers in hopes that they don't bump into each other in the future.

Janice Reed leaves her love and admiration for Gary Skinner to Darlene Wyatt.

Larry Romine leaves his basketball suit to Rickey Newton with the apology that the seat is worn.

Kenny Shoefstall, after several years of acquired knowledge leaves his ability to run the concession stand to Gary Moser.

Gary Skinner leaves his worn out George Jones records, "China Man" to David Hansard and Ricky Schwartz.

Glenn Stover leaves his last quarter to Mike Gilbert.

Randy Taylor leaves his cheerleading outfit to Frank Perez.

Cathey Van Huss leaves her mouth-muffler to Marsha Henderson.

Rebecca Van Huss leaves her wardrobe to Vickie Adams.

Patti Van Winkle leaves her maxi-dresses and quick hemming tips to Brenda Blackmore.

Weldon Wright leaves his outgoing personality and ability for wise cracks in class to Sendy Nowell.

Class Prophecy

Due to air pollution, soil erosion, and riots, this reunion of the class of '71 is being held in the unpolluted pastures of Clayco Cattle Company, on the second May of 2000. Eulan Armour and the former Cathy Broday arrived on their matching horses in an effort to fight pollution to rid Petrolia of station-wagon exhaust.

We find now that Larry Bachman owns a chain of Super Service Stations where he specializes in replacing front fenders. Alan Bevering is still living in Charlie due to the fact that he has never been able to get passed the first stop sign. Seniors say you can run into ole Alan anywhere. Bill Calobreves finally made the team of the New York Knickerbockers as chief water boy and shoe-lace repairman. Dewayne Glasgow is now building combines for the world-famous Harrison Brothers. Bill George, after attending six years of the Air Force Academy in Colorado and $15,000 later, is crop-dusting the Sahara Desert. Mike Gile owns a Surplus store which specializes in worn-out sneakers and knee braces which do not restrict your mobility. Mike Horton still comes after lunch each day to service Coach's car. Barbara Hutson while riding her great white stallion across the Sahara Desert, was eliminated when Bill George mistook her for a large Bollweevil. Howard Isaacs has recently acquired national fame for his novel, The Rise and Fall of Custard Pies. Martha Hager after graduating from Auctioneer's School went into partnership with Big Jay. Lawyer Marilyn Morgan was disbarred after losing her temper and severely beating the judge.

Jack Patterson has recently reviewed the art of old-time religion by leading "Bringing In the Sheaves" each Sunday morning. Randy Taylor recently led the Women's Liberation Movement through Madison Square Garden. Rebecca Van Huss acquired the high-paying job of changing light bulbs at Grand Central Station. Cathey Van Huss recently won a contest as the best hog caller in Boon County. Gary Skinner is presently residing in China where he feels he is more at home. David Harwell was voted the "World's Most Persuasive Male Speaker". Kenneth Shoefstall is still attending P. H. S. where he was elected to the Concession Stand Hall of Fame. Janice Reed opened a clinic for the care and feeding of undernourished P.H.S. students. Larry Romine recently took top honors in the Mr. America Contest. Congratulations, Larry!! Glenn Stover after playing 42,963 games of Solitaire, finally won one. Shirley Jones is holding down her job as chief label sticker for the Purina Dog Chow Co. Ruth Ann McGhee has mastered the art of running on her knees and elbows after four years of practice. Weldon Wright is now a sanitation engineer at New York City, commonly known as a trash man. Patti Van Winkle is now completing her world tour in which she failed to find that certain someone. She tells us she's still trying.
